

The company “Anastasios D. Douvis & Co. G.P.” was funded under the Action “Support for Existing Micro and Small Enterprises in the Territorial Just Transition Plan Areas of Western Macedonia & Megalopolis”, within the Just Development Transition Programme 2021–2027.

The project focuses on the utilization and development of new technologies and innovations for the production of improved products/services and the creation of employment opportunities.